INTRODUCTION

This is YuGo's Privacy Notice.

As part of the services we offer, we are required to process personal data about our staff, our participants and, in some instances, the relatives of our participants and staff. "Processing" can mean collecting, recording, organising, storing, sharing or destroying data.

We are committed to being transparent about why we need your personal data and what we do with it. This information is set out in this privacy notice. It also explains your rights when it comes to your data.

YuGo's designated Data Security and Protection Leads are: Naomi Boast (Head of Operations) and Max Pemberton (YuGo Director).

If you have any concerns or questions please contact us on hello@YuGo.org.uk or 01453 750474.

YUGO PARTICIPANTS

What data do we have?

So that we can provide a safe and professional service, we need to keep certain records about you. We may process the following types of data:

YuGo: Exercise Engagement Pioneers
Company Number 13937536

c/o Allsorts, Unit 9, Third Floor, Brunel Mall, London
Road, Stroud GL5 2BP

hello@yugo.org.uk

- Your basic details and contact information e.g. your name, address, date of birth and emergency contact details;

We also record the following data which is classified as “special category”:

- Health and social care data about you, which might include details of any additional needs, medication and doctors information.
- We may also record data about your race, ethnic origin, sexual orientation or religion

Why do we have this data?

We need this data so that we can provide high-quality care and support. By law, we need to have a lawful basis for processing your personal data.

We process your special category data because

- It is necessary due to social security and social protection law (generally this would be in safeguarding instances);
- It is necessary for us to provide and manage our activities;

We may also process your data with your consent. If we need to ask for your permission, we will offer you a clear choice and ask that you confirm to us that you consent. We will also explain clearly to you what we need the data for and how you can withdraw your consent at any time.

Third parties are organisations we might lawfully share your data with. These include:

- Other parts of the health and care system such as local hospitals, the GP, the pharmacy, social workers, clinical commissioning groups, and other health and care professionals;
- The Local Authority;
- Your family or friends – with your permission;
- Organisations we have a legal obligation to share information with i.e. for safeguarding
- The police or other law enforcement agencies if we have to by law or court order.

STAFF

What data do we have?

So that we can provide a safe and professional service, we need to keep certain records about you. We may record the following types of data:

- Your basic details and contact information e.g. your name, address, date of birth, National Insurance number and next of kin;
- Your financial details e.g. details so that we can pay you, insurance, pension and tax details;
- Your training records.

We also record the following data which is classified as “special category”:

YuGo: Exercise Engagement Pioneers
Company Number 13937536

c/o Allsorts, Unit 9, Third Floor, Brunel Mall, London
Road, Stroud GL5 2BP

- Health and social care data about you, which might include both your physical and mental health data – we will only collect this if it is necessary for us to know as your employer, e.g. fit notes or in order for you to claim statutory maternity/paternity pay;
- We may also, with your permission, record data about your race, ethnic origin, sexual orientation or religion.

As part of your application you may – depending on your job role – be required to undergo a Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) check (Criminal Record Check). We keep this data in a secure location as per our IAR.

Why do we have this data?

We require this data so that we can contact you, pay you and make sure you receive the training and support you need to perform your job. By law, we need to have a lawful basis for processing your personal data.

We process your data because:

- We have a legal obligation under UK employment law;

We process your special category data because

- It is necessary for us to process requests for sick pay or maternity pay.

If we request your criminal records data it is because we have a legal obligation to do this due to the type of work you do. This is set out in the Data Protection Act 2018 and the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975. We do not keep a record of your criminal records information (if any). We do record that we have checked this.

We may also process your data with your consent. If we need to ask for your permission, we will offer you a clear choice and ask that you confirm to us that you consent. We will also explain clearly to you what we need the data for and how you can withdraw your consent.

Where do we process your data?

As your employer we need specific data. This is collected from or shared with:

1. You or your legal representative(s);
2. Third parties.

We do this face to face, via phone, via email, via our website, and via post.

Third parties are organisations we have a legal reason to share your data with. These include:

- Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs (HMRC);
- Our pension and healthcare schemes (NEST)
- Our external payroll provider (Brightpay)
- Organisations we have a legal obligation to share information with i.e. for safeguarding
- The police or other law enforcement agencies if we have to by law or court order.
- The DBS Service

FRIENDS/RELATIVES

What data do we have?

As part of our work providing high-quality care and support, it might be necessary that we hold the following information on you:

- Your basic details and contact information e.g. your name, address and telephone number.

Why do we have this data?

By law, we need to have a lawful basis for processing your personal data.

We process your data because we have a legitimate business interest in holding next of kin information about our participants and keeping emergency contact details for our staff.

We may also process your data with your consent. If we need to ask for your permission, we will offer you a clear choice and ask that you confirm to us that you consent. We will also explain clearly to you what we need the data for and how you can withdraw your consent.

YOUR RIGHTS

The data that we keep about you is your data and we ensure that we keep it confidential and that it is used appropriately. You have the following rights when it comes to your data:

1. You have the right to request a copy of all of the data we keep about you.
2. You have the right to ask us to correct any data we have which you believe to be inaccurate or incomplete. You can also request that we restrict all processing of your data while we consider your rectification request;
3. You have the right to ask that we erase any of your personal data which is no longer necessary for the purpose we originally collected it for.
4. You may also request that we restrict processing if we no longer require your personal data for the purpose we originally collected it for, but you do not wish for it to be erased.
5. You can ask for your data to be erased if we have asked for your consent to process your data. You can withdraw consent at any time – please contact us to do so.
6. If we are processing your data as part of our legitimate interests as an organisation or in order to complete a task in the public interest, you have the right to object to that processing. We will restrict all processing of this data while we look into your objection.
